

For Immediate Release

San Francisco, California: Antlion Audio announced today at TwitchCon 2015 that they have expanded their retail product offerings for 2015. You can now build your dream headset with one stop shopping at AntlionAudio.com with a wide selection of headphones from audio industry leaders - HifiMan, Audio Technica Professional Products, and Superlux. Outstanding performance to meet any budget from the industry's "best headphones under $40" - Superlux 668B - to the unparalleled audiophile listening experience of the HifiMan HE 1000 planars, and the complete line of Audio Technica Pro headphones featuring the M50X.

Antlion Audio President Jimmy Console stated that a variety of new gaming products would be revealed this weekend at TwitchCon. Live updates from the Antlion Audio booth are available at their website, www.AntlionAudio.com, as well as social media accounts <https://www.facebook.com/AntlionAudio> <https://twitter.com/antlionaudio> and convention goers can visit them in person September 25th and 26th at booth #2600 for raffles and giveaways.

The unparalleled and innovative Antlion ModMic combined with the comfort of professional headphones and our outstanding customer service will make your dream headset a reality!
